What is the Office of Student Activities...

WANT to GET CONNECTED to CAMPUS? Clubs, student opinion surveys, campus events, and leadership opportunities are just the start of what the Office of Student Activities (OSA) offers everyone on the Rowan College at Burlington County (RCBC) campuses. The OSA staff is dedicated to serving students and providing recreational, social, and organizational opportunities on- and off-campus. Our office is open to you... visit any time!

READY to KICK OFF your COLLEGE EXPERIENCE?
Through the OSA and the Student Government Association (SGA), RCBC offers you a pass to an exciting student life full of activities and opportunities.

SHORT ON CASH? Most events are held on campus and are free for students. The OSA and SGA offer interactive, exciting, and affordable experiences for all students. Your Student Activity fee helps us host events. So tell us what you want to see, whether it’s a concert, a comedy show, a bus trip, or an OSA sponsored activity!

ARE YOU A LEADER? Want to improve your speaking, writing, or leadership skills and be ready for real life leadership challenges? The OSA offers new and innovative ways to develop leadership and communication skills. Current student leaders are all around you. Join more than 100 students who are already serving in campus organizations, student government, and on-campus jobs.

WANT to KNOW MORE? Get more information on all the programs from the OSA in TEC 107 on the Mt. Laurel Campus or in Parker 126, located near the Student Lounge in the Parker Center on the Pemberton Campus.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES and CAMPUS PROGRAMS at RCBC:
More than 10,000 students participate in events hosted by the OSA. Throughout the academic year, the OSA hosts more than 100 events that enable students to experience cultural, recreational, leadership, social, and personal interest activities. This experience is enhanced by the opportunity for involvement in more than 25 student organizations, including major-related and interest-related clubs. Additional opportunities are available through service projects and campus events each semester.
...and why should you be involved?

WE COORDINATE: Off-campus activities such as bus trips to NYC for Broadway shows, Washington, D.C. for museums, and so much more!

LOUNGES: There are two student lounges, one in Mt. Laurel in the Science Building next to the bookstore, and one in Pemberton, on the first floor of the Parker Center. Enjoy shooting pool, playing video games, studying, or just hanging out with friends.

REAL-LIFE LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES: We offer a leadership program that is free to students. We have three to four workshop topics per semester on both campuses. The program will prepare you for the real world and set you apart from your peers. RSVP is required.

EXPERIENCE the COLLEGE LIFE YOU DESERVE: GET INVOLVED!

Student Government Association (SGA)

WHAT SGA HAS DONE FOR ME AND WHAT IT CAN DO FOR YOU!

Over the past semester as SGA President, I think the most commonly asked question I’ve received has been, “What has SGA done for you, and what can it do for me?”

When thinking about a response I often reminisce about the rollercoaster of different adventures, obstacles, and lessons I’ve learned in Student Government throughout my term thus far. SGA has taught me to become an overall better person as well as a better student. From September to December we raised hundreds of dollars for charity and provided supplies and gifts for sick children in Cooper Hospital, and we have more service projects to look forward to in the spring semester. I don’t say this to brag, but I can honestly say that I have been truly humbled because of the work I have done through my role in the Student Government.

Aside from service, we are also given the privilege of being the voice for the RCBC student body. The Administration has invited us to contribute our opinions here at the college about student-centered issues that range from serving on the RCBC Code of Conduct committee, all the way to giving student input and viewpoints on the blueprint of the new Student Success building on the Mt. Laurel campus.

All of my SGA experiences have molded me into the young leader I am today.

As far as what SGA can do for you reading this, getting involved in SGA is the ultimate opportunity for you to strive for success and to shine amongst your peers. It is an amazing networking opportunity for you to meet staff and faculty at the college that will help, mentor, and mold you to be the successful adult you are destined to be, no matter what occupation you are pursuing. SGA builds leaders, and that is way more than your average resume builder.

Time set aside to honor Black History started back in 1915. In 1926 it was just a week long and was called Negro History Week. It occurred during the second month of February to coincide with the birth dates of Abraham Lincoln and Fredrick Douglass.

In the 1960s, due in part to the civil rights movement, the celebration grew from a week to a month. This evolution reportedly started to take place on college campuses.

Since 1976, every president has deemed the month of February “Black History Month.” The first to make the proclamation was Gerald R. Ford who said that this was a time to “seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.”

WHAT IS VAWA?
The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) is a landmark piece of legislation that sought to improve criminal justice and community-based responses to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking in the United States.

The passage of VAWA in 1994 and its reauthorization in 2000, 2005 and 2013, has changed the landscape for victims who once suffered in silence. Victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking have been able to access services, and a new generation of families and justice system professionals has come to understand that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking are crimes that our society will not tolerate.

What is it, and why do I need it?

OrgSync is an online platform, available on your computer, tablet, or phone, and gives you a way to meet new students, join clubs, get information about activities, weigh in on polls, voice your student concerns, and so much more. We know RCBC students are super busy, so we’ve come up with a way for you to connect with RCBC’s community without having to take time away from your job, friends, or academics. In fact, OrgSync combines all of the above topics, AND gives you an easy and accessible way to get involved with campus activities and student clubs.

LOG IN NOW!

All RCBC students already have an OrgSync account already set up. Your username is your RCBC student email (firstname_lastname@mymail.bcc.edu).

If you know your password, enter it and you’re on your way.

If you forgot your password, just click the link that says, “Forgot Your Username or Password?” and OrgSync will email you instructions on how to access your account.

DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS?

Are you confused about how to take advantage of all of OrgSync’s cool features? Do you just want to tell us how awesome you think OrgSync is for RCBC (we know!)?

Call the Office of Student Activities at (856) 222-9311, ext. 1238 or email studentactivities@bcc.edu and we’ll be more than happy to help with any of the above questions, or anything else you can come up with to say about OrgSync!
