

BOARD POLICY

No. 921

TITLE: Prohibition against Hazing

DATE ADOPTED: November 18, 2025

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 18, 2025

SUPERSEDES: n/a

PURPOSE:

This Policy establishes Rowan College at Burlington County's ("RCBC" or "the College") prohibition against hazing and delineates the College's procedures for reporting, investigating, and addressing allegations of hazing. This Policy affirms RCBC's commitment to fostering a safe, inclusive, and respectful academic environment and ensures compliance with applicable state law and the Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act.

POLICY:

This Policy applies to all RCBC students, student organizations, honor societies, and any other affiliated student groups, whether activities occur on or off campus, and whether or not the organization is established or recognized by the College. Student organizations are collectively and individually responsible for ensuring adherence to this Policy. All faculty and staff are responsible for being knowledgeable of this policy and for completing annual training demonstrating their awareness.

The Office of Student Life is responsible for following established procedures to communicate to students and staff and address any complaints related to hazing in coordination with Public Safety and the chief student services officer of the College. Review of procedures will occur annually in alignment with Student Code of Conduct review processes. Any changes to the procedures for related policies are reviewed and approved by the chief student services officer of the College.

Acting President Date

Chairman Date