COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES:
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Estimate costs and benefits of various energy projects
- Calculate energy cost and cost savings of energy investment alternatives, using utility rate schedules
- Perform simple payback and life cycle cost analysis of proposed energy investment alternatives
- Solve economic analysis problems involving the time value of money, inflation, and escalating cost of energy
- Compute manual and computerized economic analysis of energy investment alternatives
- Prepare a written report of an independent energy investment analysis project
General Education Outcomes in This Course:

| Written and Oral Communication: Communication | *Students will logically and persuasively support their points of view or findings.
*Students will communicate meaningfully with a chosen audience while demonstrating critical thought. |
| Quantitative Knowledge and Skills: Mathematics | *Students will analyze data to solve problems utilizing appropriate mathematical concepts.
*Students will translate quantifiable problems into mathematical terms and solve these problems using mathematical or statistical operations. |
| Technological Competency or Information Literacy: Technology | *Students will demonstrate competency in office productivity tools appropriate to continuing their education.
*Students will exhibit competency in library online database tools appropriate to accessing information in reference publications, periodicals and bibliographies. |

Core Course Content:

- Introduction to Investment, Economics, and Decisions
- Conceptual introduction and getting started with Life Cycle Cost Analysis (LCCA)
- Discount and inflation in LCCA
- Estimating cost for LCCA
- Current and future dollar values, Estimating energy costs
- LCCA, Supplemental Measures, Net Savings (NS), Saving to Investment Ratio (SIR)
- Project I Submission and Presentation
- Performance Contracting
- Download and Review LCCA Software
- Dealing with Uncertainty in LCCA
- Sensitivity Analysis
- Project II presentation
COURSE ACTIVITIES:

Course activities vary from course to course and instructor to instructor. Below is a listing of some of the activities students can anticipate in this course:

- Writing assignments: students will analyze current issues in the field using current articles from the popular press as well as library research including electronic resources databases.

- Speaking assignments: students will present research individually or in groups using current technology to support the presentation (e.g., PowerPoint presentation); students will participate in discussions and debates related to the topics in the lessons. Discussions may also focus on cross-cultural and legal-ethical dilemmas as they relate to the course content.

- Simulation activities: Trends and issues will be analyzed for their ethical as well as social or legal significance. Students might role-play common situations for classmates to analyze. Current news articles may be used to generate discussion.

- Case Studies: Complex situations and scenarios will be analyzed in cooperative group settings or as homework assignments.

- Lectures: This format will include question and answer sessions to provide interactivity between students and instructor.

- Speakers: Representatives from various related fields may be invited to speak.

- Videos: Related topics will provide impetus for discussion.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY:

Rowan College at Burlington County advocates a technology enhanced teaching and learning environment. Advanced technological tools may be used in any course section to facilitate instruction. Many of our sections are web-enhanced, which means that some of your work will be submitted or completed online. Web enhancements may include online materials, grade books, testing and quizzes and assignment submission. Many students enjoy the flexibility and convenience that these online enhancements have provided, however if you have concerns about the technology involved, please speak to your instructor immediately.

STUDENT EVALUATIONS:
The student will be evaluated on the degree to which student learning outcomes are achieved. A variety of methods may be used such as tests, quizzes, class participation, projects, homework assignments, presentations, etc.

See individual instructor’s course handouts for grading system and criteria (point value for each assessment component in course, e.g. tests, papers, presentations, attendance etc.), number of papers and examinations required in the course, and testing policy including make ups and/or retests.

Grading Standard:

- A Mastery of essential elements and related concepts, plus demonstrated excellence or originality.
- B+ Mastery of essential elements and related concepts, showing higher level understanding.
- B Mastery of essential elements and related concepts.
- C+ Above average knowledge of essential elements and related concepts.
- C Acceptable knowledge of essential elements and related concepts.
- D Minimal knowledge of related concepts.
- F Unsatisfactory progress. This grade may also be assigned in cases of academic misconduct, such as cheating or plagiarism, and/or excessive absences.

For other grades, see the current ROWAN COLLEGE AT BURLINGTON COUNTY catalog.

College Policies:

The current college catalog and student handbook are important documents for understanding your rights and responsibilities as a student in the RCBC classroom. Please read your catalog and handbook as they supplement this syllabus, particularly for information regarding:

- Academic Integrity Code
- Student Conduct Code
- Student Grade Appeal Process

Office of Student Support and Disabilities Services:

RCBC welcomes students with disabilities into the college’s educational programs. Access to accommodations and support services for students with learning and other disabilities is facilitated by staff in the Office of Student Support (OSS). In order to receive accommodations, a student must contact the OSS, self-identify as having a disability, provide appropriate documentation, and participate in an intake appointment. If the documentation supports the request for reasonable accommodations, the OSS will provide the student with an Accommodation Plan to give to instructors. Contact the Office of Student Support at 609-894-9311, ext. 1208 or visit the website at: www.rcbc.edu/studentsupport
