CULINARY ARTS

CODE: CUL 206
TITLE: Italian Traditions and American Regional Cuisine

DIVISION: STEM

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course in the Italian and American traditions is an intensive experience in classical and authentic Italian and American foods and culture. Since "Italian Cuisine" is actually a composite of foods of Italian regions (20), many towns and many households this course will stress the importance of understanding the term "Regional Cuisine". Likewise, students will gain an understanding in American cuisine by examining the history, diverse cultures and regional culinary traditions of the evolving United States from Native American and first settlers to the present. Throughout this course students will be presented with a variety of authentic Italian and American ingredients, terms, preparations and recipes.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY:

Rowan College at Burlington County advocates a technology enhanced teaching and learning environment. Advanced technological tools may be used in any course section to facilitate instruction. Many of our sections are web-enhanced, which means that some of your work will be submitted or completed online. Web enhancements may include online materials, grade books, testing and quizzes and assignment submission. Many students enjoy the flexibility and convenience that these online enhancements have provided, however if you have concerns about the technology involved, please speak to your instructor immediately.

STUDENT EVALUATIONS:

The student will be evaluated on the degree to which student learning outcomes are achieved. A variety of methods may be used such as tests, quizzes, class participation, projects, homework assignments, presentations, etc.

See individual instructor’s course handouts for grading system and criteria (point value for each assessment component in course, e.g. tests, papers, presentations, attendance etc.), number of papers and examinations required in the course, and testing policy including make ups and/or retests.
